487. Help Us Accept Each Other

1 Help us accept each other as Christ accepted us;
teach us as sister, brother,
each person to embrace.
Be present, Lord, among us and bring us to believe we are ourselves accepted and meant to love and live.

2 Teach us, O Lord, your lessons, as in our daily life
we struggle to be human and search for hope and faith.
Teach us to care for people, for all, not just for some,
to love them as we find them or as they may become.

3 Let your acceptance change us, so that we may be moved in living situations
to do the truth in love, to practice your acceptance until we know by heart the table of forgiveness and laughter's healing art.

4 Lord, for today's encounters with all who are in need, who hunger for acceptance,
for righteousness and bread, we need new eyes for seeing,
new hands for holding on;
renew us with your Spirit;
Lord, free us, make us one!

73. There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

1 There's a wideness in God's mercy,
like the wideness of the sea;
there's a kindness in God's justice, which is more than liberty.

2 There is welcome for the sinner, and more graces for the good!
There is mercy with the Savior;
there is healing in his blood.

3 For the love of God is broader than the measure of our mind; and the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind.

4 If our love were but more simple, we would rest upon God's word;
and our lives would be illumined by the presence of the Lord.
